HIGH SCHOOL IN CANTATA FOR LIBRARY

Monessen has another fine musical number on for this week, and it's one that should receive the more than liberal support of all home and liberty loving people and all who have an interest in our public schools and the endeavors of the younger generation to prepare themselves for the life work that will be their's in but a few years.

The high school students will on Thursday evening present in the Monessen opera house "The Wreck of the Hesperus" a very pretty musical cantata, and for its producion Director Robert W. Davies has chosen characters particularly suited for each individual part, and one of the sweetest things in a musical way, yet heard in our town will be rendered. Each soloist in his or her part is undergoing especial training and will be well-nigh perfect in the rendition.

There will be two parts in the program, the cantata to be preceded by a most attractive musical program, the first number to be a chorus by pupils from grades two and four, and hard and careful training will bring these students to a point of perfection which will make this one of the evening's features, There will be six other numbers, duetes, solos, songs and readings, selected from the most popular authors and all-in-all it will be worthy the patronage of the most critical of music lovers.

The proceeds of this entertainment are to used to replenish and build up the school library which is badly in need of help. There are, it is true, a limited number of volumes now in the library, but they have been so long in use that they are very badly worn, and most everyone has read them, hence a point has been reached where interest has been lost. One will say, "Oh pshaw; I've read every book in the library." Another, "the books are so old and worn that I don't care to read them." So, by adding a few hundred volumes of bran new books, on bran new subjects by bran new and popular authors, a new life and interest will be renewed, and then by keeping on adding, from time to time, we'll soon have what the town needs, a creditable library. So don't be stingy, help the "high school kids" along. Buy a ticket and go. Take your friends. Show your heart is in the right place for once, if you never have before.

CHURCH BALL LEAGUE TO MEET TO-NIGHT

The representatives from the different churches will meet this evening for re-organization. This news has been looked forward to for some time by the younger enthusiasts and followers of the game and means much to Monessen in an athletic way as it will be the means of furnishing some lively and interesting arguments on the diamond during the summer and early fall.

Enthusiasm has reached a high point and the different teams have been talking baseball among themselves the past two weeks and in many cases daily practices have started. There is no question in the minds of any one now but that the present season will be a most successful one from every view point and the interest being taken on all sides by everyone disproves some wild rumors that were afloat some time ago that the league would not be able to go through another season.

The representatives so far are: Lutheran, G. H. Eveler; Methodist, W. R. Motz; Presbyterian, H. D. McCabe; Catholic, H. J. Bearer. Christian, J. L. Saum and Baptist, E. E. Drake. It is probable that these will elect a secretary-treasurer to serve in that capacity and to take care of the averages and other records.

The constitution is being drafted and will in all probability be the most interesting one as it will be definitely decided whether to continue using the grounds in connection with the Page Atheletic Association or construct a grounds on the old Electric park site.

REMONSTRATES AGAINST UNUSUAL HIGH LICENSE

The Goldsteins of Donora seem to be still in hot water. It will be remembered that some time ago there as some queer manipulation reported. Such as bankrupt proceedings, a big fake sale advertised, and the "quick change" transfer racket worked and eventually the authorities taking a hand, decided the outfit was transient and assessed them a special tax of $200. Now Marian Goldstein a lady merchant, claims the license assessed against her "agent," J. Goldstein, is unjust as she pays a yearly mercantile license to do a legitimate business. She will try to show the justness of her contention in court at Washington this week. A seeming similar case to that of a jewelry saleman who during the winter let go of $103.00 in Monessen under the special ordinance, although he had paid the regular dollar a day license to do business

AFTERMATH OF PRIMARY SHOWS SLIGHT CHANGES FROM THE FIRST FIGURES

Unofficial returns of Saturday's primaries from all but three or four of the 183 precincts in the county last night gave Chester D. Sensenich of Irwin a lead for State Senate over Denna C. Ogden of Greensburg by 344 votes. The totals were 5568 for Sensenich and 5224 for Ogden.

For Assembly in the Second district Carey L. Schuck of Monessen was 200 in the lead of all candidates, John F. Ely of Jeannette being second in the race and Frank J. McAllister of New Kensington third with more than 200 ahead of the fourth man, Harry E. Blank of Greensburg. Daugherty of Jeannette and Dickey of New Kensington were 700 behind Blank or 900 below the lowest winner and 1200 votes below the Monessen candidate.

Following were the totals for Assembly in the district: Blank, 4341; Daugherty, 3637; Ely, 4648; McAllister, 4541; and Schuck 4834. Only Arona, Hyde Park, Penn and New Stanton were to hear from and these unofficial returns has been sealed with the official, which will be taken Thursday by the commissioners. Ulerick and Neel, present members, received the Republican nominations in the First district.

The nomination for Congress had not been in question since early Sunday morning, Abraham L. Keister of Scottdale having about 500 lead over Edward E. Robbins of Greensburg in both counties.

For State Senate Joseph A. McCurdy's vote will be just about 2000.

BIDS VARY FOR THE THIRD STREET VIADUCT

With but five of the members present council met in special session last evening for the purpose of receiving, opening and tabulating the bids on the Third street viaduct. In the absence of president Stevens, J. J. Cushing was elected chairman protem.

Six bids were received and the sum for the work ranged from $51,000 to $66,000 for the reinforced concrete viaduct complete. Among the bids opened last night were those of L. J. Mench of Chicago, Ill; H. C. Brooks and Co., New York City; Bowman Bros., McKeespuort; Nicola Building Co., Pittsburgh; C. B. Clark and Co., Baltimore, Md., and the Cullen, Friestadt Co., Chicago, Ill.

After receiving the bids it was moved that council adjorn until Friday evening in order to allow time for the consulting engineers, Chester and Fleming, to tabulate the bids.

SHOWER HELD FOR SPRING BRIDE TO BE

The Thursday afternoon "500" club met last night at the home of Mrs. J. B. Scanlon, No. 4 McKee avenue, tendering a miscellaneous shower in honor of a club member, Miss Dot Elliott, whose marriage to Mr. Ralph Brautegam is to be an early event. The evening was most enjoyably spent, "500" forming the leading pastime. A most delightful luncheon was served, and many were the little toasts offered in the way of happy wishes for the future life of the honor guest.

Miss Helen Bartlick, who has for several weeks been the house guest of her sister, Mrs. J. B. Scanlon of No. 4, McKee avenue, left today, for her home in New Kensington.

MISS HAMBRY HONORED IN COMPETITION

Miss Edith Hambry, an art student of Donora, won gratifying recognition as a competitor in the first annual exhibit of the commerical poster contest conducted under the auspices of the Associated Artists of Pittsburgh for the Ivan B. Nordhem Company prize of $100. The exhibit is now being held in the Joseph Horne Company Art Galleries where the work of the contestants is attracting much attention.

The work was first passed upon by the judges, three prizes being awarded and ten of the contestants being rewarded with honorable mention. Miss Hambry was called upon to furnish a poster design for the makers of Zatek chocolate and so excellent was her drawing that her name was among the first of the ten to receive honorable mention.

Miss Hambry is at present studying art in the Carnegie Technical school and is succeeding well with her work as her success in the contest will show. She is a daughter of Squire and Mrs. F. B. Hambry of Meldon avenue, and is a social favorite locally. She has many friends and admirers in Monessen who are elated over her success.

ANOTHER BLOODTHIRSTY SOCIETY HAS APPEARED

A new Italian society seems to be in existence in this locality known as the "Red Mask," which to all indications is equal to, if not worse than the notorious "Black Hand," which has stricken terror to many hearts even in Monessen during the past few years. The first case to come to light in this valley is from Homestead in which Joseph Durso is on trial in Pittsburgh charged with sending a letter to Antonio Ginliano, demanding $6,000, and signed the "Red Mask." Guiliano conducts a grocery store in Homestead and is reputed to be wealthy and this demand has aroused a feeling of excitement all along the valley.

The condition of M. Janavitz of Schoonmaker avenue shows a slight change for the better. Mr. Janavitz has been very poorly for several days but last night he rested some better and seems stronger today.

"NUTTY" OVER CIGARETTES AND WOMAN

With every stitch of his clothing torn into little oblong strips and lying in one corner of his cell at the borough jail where he had placed them in a neat pile, Alec Knaedill a Finn, about 22 years old, now lies bound hand and foot with straps in regular straightjacket fashion and his nude body enveloped in a large blanket.

Kneadill went crazy over a girl in the old country and in spite of heroic efforts on the part of members of the family his mind could not be saved and he is now a mental wreck. Late yesterday afternoon he became so violent that the attendants at the jail were forced to bind him. He shattered the iron bed in one of the cells he occupied and threatened to demolish it further when he was stopped and removed to another cell. It was feared for a time that he would try, in one of his mad flights, to commit self destruction and a close watch is kept on him. He smokes cigarettes continually when he can secure them through friends and refuses to talk to anyone directly and when not in a violent frame of mind, remains passive and mumbles an intelligible jargon, in his native tongue. It is not known what disposition will be made with him yet but it is thought he will probably be sent to one of the asylums for the feeble minded.

BOND ISSUE FOR DONORA TO PAVE AND SEWER

Donora has passed finally on a $50 000 bond issue for paving and sewering, and a petition has been received from residents of West Columbia and South Donora asking to be annexed, and in case these districts are taken in Donora's population will be increased by several hundred.

Donora will be a busy town the coming summer in a constructive way, as orders have gone out for the paving and sewering of a number of important streets before next winter.

The assessed valuation of the town for 1912 is reported to be $3,744,840, an increase of $100,000 over last year.

Keeping Secrets

The bggest, richest and best-abused corporation in the United States has one rule in regard to it's inner working's which must commend itself to every business man. It is that the affairs of the company are to be kept strictly private, and to this end, every employee, both high and low, is instructed to keep all orders he receives to himself and not to repeat or discuss any matters relating to the business with ary other person. Every employee on entering the office of this corporation is informed that he is to keep absolute silence about its dealings, both large and small, and is not to mention them in any way; if he does so, he loses his place promptly and without redress.

At first blush the rule seems unnecessarily stern; but a minute's contemplation of it in all its bearings will dispel that thought. Business men who have found their best laid plans divulged by an office boy or a thoughtless clerk who has in some way chanced to learn about them and who thinks it smart to joke about the "old man's" way of doing things, or the last kink in his regulations will say that the rule is precisely what is needed.

One of the most despicable habits in the world is the giving of one's self away. This deadly art is now practiced to a greater extent than ever before and it owes its prevalence, in no small degree, to the insatiable curiosity of a large and constantly growing class of people who take more interest in the affairs of their neighbors than they do in their own.

The old fashioned virtue of reticence, which is keeping things to one's self, is as forgotten as the art of making Damascus blades.

What Do Women Think?

There's a puzzle on your life, and don't forget it. Nor will it be quite safe for a mere man to attempt to think it out, for it might be too much for his brain. But they do think, and think a lot. Just now they are thinking about the things that men were thinking about two centuries ago, about how best to govern themselves.

Man never wrestled with a more important question, nor have women ever tackled one that is more profound. Just what she will make of it, a mess or an angel cake, will hardly be answered in time for those now living to see and enjoy. But she will, with the help of man, answer it in time.

SEVEN YEARS OF MISERY

How Mrs. Bethune was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Sikeston, Mo. — "For seven years I suffered everything. I was in bed for four or five days at a time every month, and so weak I could hardly walk. I had cramps, backache and headache, and was so nervous and weak that I dreaded to see anyone or have anyone move in the room. The doctors gave me medicine to ease me at those times, and said that I ought to have an operation. I would not listen to that, and when a friend of my husband's told him about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it had done for his wife, I was willing to take it. Now I look the picture of health and feel like it, too. I can do all my own housework, work in the garden and entertain company and enjoy them, and can walk as far as any ordinary woman, any day in the week. I wish I could talk to every suffering woman and girl, and tell them what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. DEMA BETHUNE, Sikeston, Mo.

Remember, the remedy which did this was Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

It has helped thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion, and nervous prostration, after all other means have failed. Why don't you try it?

DEEP MYSTERY OF THE LAW

Man Who Won't Support Family Is Imprisoned and Wife Really Pays Penalty.

Mysteries, far beyond the comprehension of the average mortal, are constantly revealed in the law and its administration. The other day a much-harassed woman appeared in a Boston court and complained to the judge that her husband refused to support their two small children. She could get along without him, she said, but she demanded that he be compelled to go to work and help support his offspring. Her story was corroborated by witnesses.

So the judge found the man guilty and sentenced him to one year in the house of correction.

Here was what seems on the surface to be an easy problem. A husband and father, either through disinclination or through inability to find work, is brought into court on a charge of non-support. In order to relieve the situation, he is sent to the house of correction, where he will be kept at work. That he is not able to send his pay envelope home to his family every Saturday night—because there is no pay envelope in such cases—is, in the eye of the law, a minor circumstance. The main thing seems to be that the man has been guilty of an offense and that he is punished for it. He is punished, but it is his wife and his two helpless children who pay the penalty.

The law may be ironical, but it has no sense of humor. "You have been found guilty of not supporting your children," it says, "and therefore I will send you where you cannot support them."

Children and Firearms Again.

Little Anna Quinn, fourteen years old, was instantly killed the other day at Lowell, Mass., by the explosion of a revolver held by her playmate, Thelma Borg, aged twelve years. The two children, with Sonia Borg, a sister of Thelma, and another play-fellow, were playing about the Borg ome when they discovere' the revolver. After all had looke' at it, Anna playfully held it against the heart of Thelma Borg. "I'm going to ki" you," she said, smilingly. The trigge was pulled, but the revolver failed explode. Once more the weapon w. examined by the children and then Thelma Borg took it and placed it close to the Quinn child's hea. Playfully she exclaimed: "You killed me; now I'm going to kill you" She fired. This time the weapon exploded.

Odd Sentences.

"Break rock for 100 days or go to church every Sunday for six months," was the sentence imposed upon three Kansas City (Mo.) boys, after they had been convicted of throwing eggs at pedestrians

"I sentence this boy to a whipping every morning for a month. Not the namby pamby kind, but good, real hard ones; ones that'll make him eat off a mantelpiece. You'll find then that he'll develop into a good boy." This was the remedy prescribed by magisterial wisdom in the case of an eight-year-old boy who, his mother said, had a mania for running away from home.—Case and Comment.

PEOPLES FORUM

This column is devoted to the expression of the opinion of our readers and in no wise denotes the paper's opinion on, or sympathy with, any question involved.

April 15, 1912.

Editor of Daily Independent,
Dear Sir.

The undersigned appreciates the remarks made in the Daily Independent of April 15th inst., regarding the Eisteddfod of Saturday, but wishes to correct a portion of the report with your kind consent. The afternoon session was presided over by Mr. Sattley, superintendent of the Page Steel Co., who made a very pleasing address on the origin of the Eisteddfod. Synopsis of his remarks were as follows.

The Eisteddfod is the National Bardic of Wales, the objects of which are to encourage Bardism and music and the general literature of the Welsh, to maintain the Welsh language, and to cultivate an foster a patriotic spirit among the people. Gradualy the Eisteddfod has become not only a musical and literary festival but prizes with competion have been offered for arts and improvements in the implements of war and peace, domestic manufactures, etc., so that from the Welsh Eisteddfod originated our present expositions and worlds fairs.

The chief features of the afternoon session were the children's choruses. The Monessen Juvenile Glee Club, sixty five in number under the direction of Dafydd F. Owen. won the first award of thirty five dollars, and the adjudicator, Dr. Jenkin Powell Jones of Cleveland, Ohio., gave the director unstinted praise for his most excellent work and complemented the children very highly. The vocal and instrumental renditions of this session were very well rendered, likewise the recitations. Professor I. T. Daniels of Charleroi performed the part of the conductor in a very pleasing manner at both afternoon and evening sessions. Professor Gress acted as literary adjudicator.

A competition by a chorus of thirty voices from each of the following schools was a very pleasing event. The Iowa building, under the leadership of Miss Hamilton. The McKinley building, under the leadership of Miss Weimer. The third ward building under the leadership of Miss Melick and the New School building under the leadership of Miss O'Reily who was the winner of the prize of twenty five dollars. Each of the leaders were highly complimented on their work by the adjudicator who also spoke complimentary on the training of the children, under the direction of the director of music in the public schools.

The evening session was presided over by Mr. Geo. Nash, superintendent of the Pittsburgh Steel Co., who gave a pleasing address. The Cambrian society was very pleased to know that both Mr. Nash and Mr. Sattley are in sympathy with the movement. Every number in this session was well rendered, chief prizes going to Homestead and Turtle Creek.

Homestead winning first prize, one hundred dollars, and Turtle Creek, male chorus winning prize of fifty dollars. McKeesport carrying off the honors in the quartette, duet, and contralto solo. Much credit is due to Mrs. Robbins for the able manner in which she directed the Monessen mixed chorus, also to Rev. Hughes for the manner in which he directed the male chorus. Both leaders were laboring under a great disadvantage, only having three days in which to prepare themselves for the occasion, Professor Robt. Davies being taken ill during the last week of rehearsal.

Yours very truly,
Wm. Watkins.

DEATH RECORD

William Matthews, among the most highly respected colored residents of Monessen died at 1:10 o'clock, at his home, 654 Reed avenue, of pulmonary trouble, aged 34 years. Deceased had been a sufferer for about two years, but did not give up until six weeks ago. He was employed at the Pittsburgh Steel Co's plant as janitor and driver and was well liked by all with whom he came in contact in his daily rounds. Mr. Matthews came to Monessen nine years ago from North Carolina and had since made his home here. He leaves a wife and four children, was a member of the local Knights of Pythias lodge and it is likely that Order will have charge of the funeral which will be held Thursday at 1 o'clock p. m., interment in Grandview cemetery.

Catty.

"Mrs. Edgealong spoke very admiringly of you," said the woman of conciliatory disposition. "Yes," replied Mrs. Flimgilt. "She is always doing that. It's a way she has of conveying an impression that she is one of my intimate friends."

How the Doctor Got His Fee

"No daughter of mine shall ever marry a son of old Wildon's," thundered Francis Halbert's irate father.

"A son isn't to blame for his father's mistakes," answered Francis. "You always maintain your disbelief in hereditary traits."

"In this case I believe that Clarence has or will inherit all his father's ways. He has never ever buried a patient, much less cured one."

"How can he when he hasn't the chance? They either send for old Dr. Corbin or take such good care of themselves that a doctor is a minus quantity in this town."

"Well, he has a quantity of nerve to ask for my daughter and that 'No' is final."

"But, father, didn't you marry mother in opposition to her family wishes?"

"Hush, child! Times were different in those days," said Mr. Halbert.

That evening Mrs. Halbert complained to her husband.

"Why are you so obstinate in the case; never have you refused your daughter the smallest trifle, and now that this love has come into her life, you talk as if she were guilty of some great offense. Don't you notice how thin and languid she is looking. She is grieving herself to death."

"Over that Wilson fellow? Impossible. Send her to the seashore and she'll return rosy and gay. If she didn't see him every day she'd never think of that idiotic physician. He couldn't prescribe for my pet canary."

"He wouldn't," answered Mrs. Halbert. Francis told me that after you spoke to him in that abrupt manner, he said he would never come near the house again until you sent for him"

Francis joined some friends at the seashore and from the tone of her letters, her father felt more than justified in having urged her to leave home.

On the fourth day the following telegram was received at the Halbert home:

"Am quarantined here. Bad case of diphtheria in hotel. Don't worry Feel fine."

Mr. and Mrs Halbert tried not to be anxious, but they could hardly wait the hour until the daily message arrived.

"Still quarantined." Mrs Halbert read on the sixth day Hotel physician takes every precaution Not lonely"

"Put yourself under doctor's care. Do exactly as he says," Mr. Halbert wired his daughter

It seemed from the rest of the telegrams that Francis was enjoying her enforced isolation and there evidently was no danger of contagion as the doctor watched her closely, was often her partner at bridge and accompanied her on long walks

"He's most likely some old fatherly practitioner who took pity on her." commented her father. "If I had searched the world over, could I have devised any better scheme for keeping Francis away from Wilson Especially as she is enjoying herself in a first-class hotel."

"Thank the doctor for his kindness," he wrote after he received word that Francis would leave on the following day. "Invite him to visit us on your return, when I will thank him in person and pay for his services whatever amount he states."

"Dear Father," was the answer a few hours later. "Dr. Wilson accompanies me home on your invitation to ask as payment for his services your consent to our marriage."

"Goodness! Gracious!" Ejaculated the surprised father. "My patience is exhausted, but if he takes such good care of his patients that he is physician in a big hotel, I suppose I might as well give in, otherwise Francis will most likely follow her parents' example and elope. There must be something in hereditary traits."

Airgrams Sent by Aviators.

A very remarkable result was that attending the effort of two French officers who succeeded in sending wireless messages a considerable distance while flying about in the vicinity of Paris. They were maneuvering in aeroplanes the other day in the neighborhood of Rambouillet and communicated with the Eiffel tower, 30 miles distant, a feat of great importance. From this foothold greater results can be attained and future possibilities, in the event of a war, can hardly be predicted by those having the most vivid power of imagination. Had Napoleon been possessed of such a distinct advantage he might have saved the day at Waterloo and thus perpetuated the map of Europe as he had so vastly changed it instead of becoming a prisoner in exile to mourn on the Island of St. Helena the loss of his great power to make or unmake nations.

The Obscure Expert.

"The people who do the real work are not always conspicuous," said the ready-made philosopher.

"That's right," replied the man with the frivolous hat. "The best photographer at a picnic always has to manage the camera and never gets into the picture."

If She Had Returned Earlier—

"Why, John, how neat you have kept the flat while I have been away!"

"Yes, dear; see that blister I got on my hand while sweeping and dusting this morning?"

YOUR GRAY HAIRS QUICKLY VANISH

A Harmless Remedy, Made from Garden Sage, Restores Color to Gray Hair.

A feeling of sadness accompanies the discovery of the first gray hairs which unfortunately are looked upon as heralds of advancing age. Gray hair, however handsome it may be, makes a person look old. We all know the advantages of being young. Aside from the good impression a youthful appearance makes on others, simply knowing that you are "looking fit" gives one courage to undertake and accomplish things. So why suffer the handicap of looking old on account of gray hairs, when a simple remedy will give your hair youthful color and beauty in a few days' time.

Most people know that common garden sage acts as a color restorer and scalp tonic as well. Our grandmother used a "Sage Tea" for keeping the hair dark, soft and luxuriant. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy we have an ideal preparation of Sage combined with Sulphur and other valuable remedies for dandruff, itching scalp and thin, weak hair that is split at the ends or constantly coming out. A few applications of this valuable remedy will bring back the color, and in a short time it will remove every trace of dandruff and greatly improve the growth and appearance of the hair.

Get a fifty cent bottle from your druggist today, and notice the difference in your hair after a few days' treatment. All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented.

Your Druggist Stops That Itch

If you are suffering from Ecezema, Psoriasis or any other kind of skin trouble, drop into our store for instant relief. We will guarantee you to stop that itch in two seconds.

We have sold other remedies for skin troubles, but none that we could recommend as highly as this, a mild wash of Oil of Wintergreen Thymol and a few other ingredients that have wrought such wonderful cures all over the country.

This compound is known as D.D.D. Prescription for Eczema and it will cool and heal the itchy, burning skin as nothing else can.

A 25c trial bottle will prove it.

Of course all other druggists have D.D.D. Prescription—go to them if you can't come to us—but don't accept some big-profit substitute.

But if you come to our store, we are so certain of what D.D.D. will do for you that we offer you a full size bottle on this guarantee:—if you do not find that it takes away the itch AT ONCE it costs you not a cent.

THE TRUE TEST

Tried in Monessen, It Has Stood the Test

The hardest test is the test of time, and Doan's Kidney Pills have stood it well in Monessen-Kidney sufferers can hardly ask for stronger proof than the following:

Mrs. Feightner, 133 Oneida street, Monessen, Pa., says: "I suffered from severe pains in my back and left side and it seemed as if there were no relief for me. I had dizzy spells and my appetite was poor. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I obtained a box, although I had but little hope of their curing me. I am now glad that I took this remedy, however, for it improved my condition in every way." (Statement given Oct. 2, 1907.)

RE-ENDORSEMENT.

When Mrs. Feightner was interviewed on Nov. 9, 1909 she said: "I gladly re-endorse Doan's Kidney Pills. I still think highly of them and advise their use in all cases of kidney trouble."

STAR THEATRE HAS A GREAT ATTRACTION

The Star has a treat above the average for it's patrons the first half of this week in Miss Frede West as "The American Venus," being one among vaudeville's latest and best creations. Miss West appears in a series of most refined and pleasing art poses, and the electric effects, depicting the high bounding and angry waves of old ocean, the passing of the lowering and the fleecy clouds with the peeping down of Mr. Moon, all go to make one of the prettiest and strongest features ever in the Star. Mozart's novelty musical act, while not new in Monessen is nevertheless exceptionally fine. Ben and Gladys Dawson in their little comedy sketch, "The Burglars" are unusually clever, being handicapped only by a very severe cold on the part of "dat coon robber" which necessitated the elimination of a part of their work. However they were favorites as it was, and the large audiences were highly delighted. The motion pictures were of the higher order and everyone can be sure of seeing a fine show if they "take in" the Star this and Wednesday evening.

BOXING EVENT AT THE OPERA HOUSE DREW WELL

What sports call a good boxing show was pulled off at the Monessen opera house last night. In fact it was pronounced the best and cleanest affair of the kind ever pulled off in this town.

The main bout was a six round draw between Swats Adamson of Brownsville and Red Robinson of Pittsburgh. During the first four rounds Robinson had much the better of the fight, but in the fifth and sixth Adamson pulled himself together and came back strong, putting up a good defense, but Robinson seemed to be the better man of the two.

The large audience was highly pleased with the work of both men and there is talk of having them here again in a month or so.

In the prelimianaries, Al Grayber of Pittsburgh encountered Jack Coulter of Connellsville. Both men showed up well, but Coulter was knocked out in the second round.

Pam Geiger of Pittsburgh and Butch Cameron of Glassport put up a six round draw in good shape and as an opener gave good satisfaction. Eddie Coleman of Monessen and Butch Kummer of Belle Vernon had a little set to which showed both lads to have good metal, putting up some good work, but were stopped in the fourth round. The attendance was fair.

ROAD VIEW IS TO BE HELD AT LATER DATE

The view on the petition of taxpayers of Rostraver township to the court to widen, straighten, relocate and abandon the public road between here and Webster will not be held today as stated some time ago. It was found yesterday that Solicitor A. M. Wyant, representing the Board of Trade, had depended upon the viewers to properly advertise the view along the route and they in turn had expected him to attend to the matter.

Accordingly the view will be postponed at least ten days, the period of time required to make it legal. W. H. Matthews of Ligonier, A. M. Dick of West Newton and Luke Lonergan of Greensburg constitute the board of viewers. Every opportunity will be given those interested to present their claims to the board.

It appears that but few property owners along the route of the proposed change are displeased with the project and in most cases they will assist instead of retard the public improvement. The Public Roads committee of the Board and a committee of citizens will accompany the viewers and present the public's interests in the proposed changes.

SETTLEMENT IN SIGHT FOR MINE WORKERS

It is stated on fairly good authority that miner and operator in the bituminous coal industry of the United States will be at peace for the coming two years. The compromise wage agreement, negotiated by the joint conference at Cleveland, has been approved in a referendum vote of the soft coal workers of the United Mine Workers of America. Tabulation of the vote, which commenced at the miners' headquarters at Indianapolis, indicate that all least 200,000 of the approximate 250,000 miners voting have ratified the agreement.

As a result the following wage increases are agreed on: Five cents a ton for mining screened coal; three cents a ton for mining unscreened coal; five and twenty-six hundredths per cent for all other mine work.

The final vote on the ratification of the compromise is not expected to be known before late this afternoon.

Thus every indication today is that all mines along the Monongahela river will be operating on full time within a week.

Stoddard-Dayton 1912 Line

Successful motor-car manufacture demands continual improvement of proven products, and either increased values or lower prices year by year.

Enhanced values or lower prices are possible only by economies effected by better manufacturing and selling methods and facilities, and by quantity production.

To this end the United States Motor Company was formed by successful makers.

With an already wonderful car, with a wonderful record and reputation, the Stoddard-Dayton, since joining the United States Motor Company, has been able in two years to effect economies and improve its cars until in 1912 each dollar buys half as much again as was possible two years ago.

We gratefully recognize the satisfaction our cars have given in the past eight years, and are proud of the pride of ownership expressed by Stoddard-Dayton owners.

But we are confident they will regard 1912 Stoddard-Daytons as the most extraordinary values ever offered in QUALITY CARS.

The lines of all the body designs tend toward extreme simplicity. The effect is striking. The use of running-board toolboxes does away with all unsightly battery boxes, gas tanks, etc., that mar the appearance of the usual car. Neatness and simplicity are carried to a still further impressive state by removing from the dash everything except the gasolene and oil pressure gauges and the small cover of the coil.

The forward part of the body has been widened considerably, giving ample space for the working of control and brake levers inside. The front seats of the "Knight" and "Saybrook" Touring cars and Torpedo models are adjustable forward and back, to accommodate drivers of various leg-lengths who have heretofore found no car that exactly fitted them.
